DANTE'S INFERNO REVISITED

Luray "honor" students hard at work.

"Stairway to Heaven"?

Luray High School has withstood the test of time. The building has silently watched over the coming in and the going out of untold numbers of young people as they strived to reach their individual goals. Some succeeded in those goals, others didn't, but they were all given the same opportunity to make something more of themselves through learning. An education doesn't automatically make someone a better person or bring that person fame and fortune, but it does provide a foundation which is necessary for survival in today's society. Luray High School has been around a long time and will continue to provide young people with the necessary ingredients for a productive future. As we enter a new decade we look ahead with determination and hope for a brighter future armed with the hard-earned knowledge received at Luray High School.

Pre-School football game provides a few moments of physical activity before a strenuous day of work.

After a grueling day at school, students anxiously await the bus ride home.

Math can be fun with Mr. Bishop.

FANCY FOOD

Yummies for the tummy!

A fire drill gives teachers a chance to enjoy the great outdoors.

Students wonder if maybe this time the fire drill is for real.

This black and white photograph doesn't do these enchiladas justice.

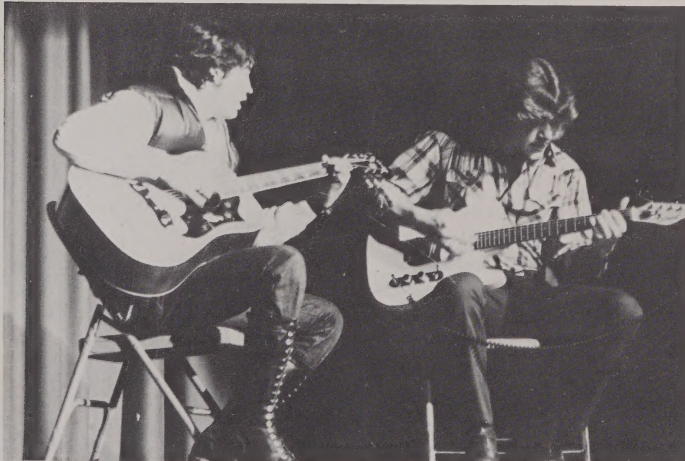

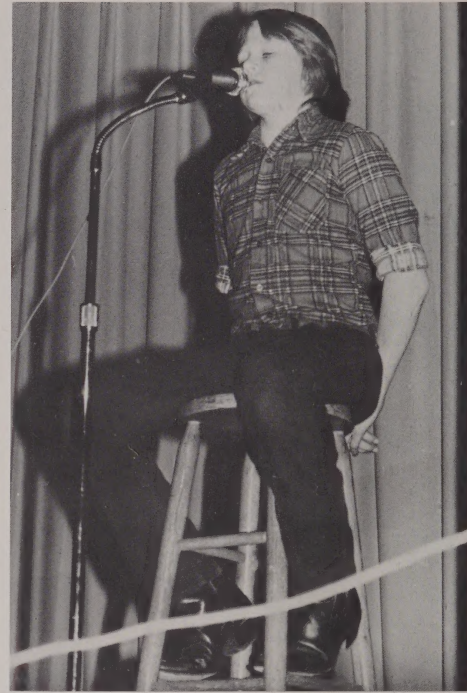

A welcome break from classes.

Mr. Brandon teaches Kitty and Stephanie to tie up loose ends.

Parents force themselves to eat Spanish club dinner.

L.H.S. learned a lot about Black History during Black History Week.

The teachers and the school went through inspection and PASSED!!!

The Judges decide.

There is never a dull (!!!) moment at L.H.S. We are forever entertaining and being entertained by various guests and parents. These special people seem to find pleasure in spending time helping and supporting the students. We would like to extend a special thanks to Mr. Fritz Baukhages and Mrs. David Pullen for being great athletic supporters and for helping to support the Junior's Gong Show.

LURAY HIGH SCHOOL DIRECTOR

Mr. Cambell, the schools Athletic Director discusses his job with the HIGHLAND STAFF:

1) COULD YOU GIVE ME A FEW ASPECTS OF YOUR JOB?

"Well, I prepare all of the game schedules, I arrange practice schedules, I make sure all athletes are eligible according to the Virginia rule books, I get a hold of officials for the games, such as police protection and the rescue squad. I keep the media informed on Athletic events, I arrange all the transportation for athletes, sell tickets, and coordinate the use of Athletic Facilities for school groups and community groups."

2) DO YOU HAVE TO SPEND A LOT OF EXTRA HOURS AS THE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR?

"Yes, I have to make sure that my time is well organized. Most of my time spent as Athletic Director involves night time work to set up the gym or field and then stay to see that things run smoothly. I'm the assistant Principal during the day and the Athletic Director at night."

3) IS THERE ANY PRESSURE ON YOU ABOUT LIMITING THE NUMBER OF GAMES DUE TO THE GAS CRISIS?

"Yes, mostly from the Virginia Highschool League which is the nerve center of all athletics."

4) WHY DON'T YOU COACH?

"I do! My job as Athletic Director gives me the opportunity to get involved in all sports. I enjoy coaching, It's very satisfying for me to see kids go out and do something that I taught them to do."

5) DO YOU RECEIVE A LOT OF COMMUNITY SUPPORT?

"Yes, we live in a society where people appreciate sports. This country has been grown on competition."

6) WHAT DO YOU LIKE BEST/WORST ABOUT YOUR JOB AS ATHLETIC DIRECTOR?

"I like it because I get to be associated with so many good people. But I never seem to have enough time to get things done. I wouldn't get things done if it wasn't for Mrs. Keyser and Mrs. Michalek who do my typing, send out bills etc. I also receive a lot of help from Mr. Lockridge."

7) DO YOU SEE MUCH TALENT GO THROUGH L.H.S.?

"Yes, our basketball program is known state wide. And I am also pleased with scholarship sports awards because it shows both the athletic and academic aspect of our team members."

8) WHAT IS (ARE) YOUR FAVORITE SPORT(S)?

"Basketball. It's almost like a ballet. It's a synchronized motion, fluid; it flows when things go right. I also respect track runners because you have to do a lot of work on the mind."

Thank you Mr. Campbell, and good luck in the future with your career as Athletic Director.

HOMECOMING . . . VICTORY

Homecoming week went by hosted by crazy socks, lollipops, a bonfire, car parades, and a victorious football game.

A change was made this year regarding the transportation used on the field by the Homecoming court . . . six of the court rode in MGs and one in a 1969 Jaguar. Homecoming Queen was Terry Fox, her court; senior princesses Elaine Downer and Kitty Broome, Junior Kathy Sult, Sophomore Cheryl Ellis, Freshman Bonnie Goubleman, and Eighth grade Patty Painter.

HIGH SCORING GAMES, FOOTBALL HIGHLIGHTS

The Varsity Squad did much better than expected this year. This was no doubt due to the size of some of this year's players. Moral support and generous contributions from the Booster Club, team member's families and friends were also a decisive factor.

The J. V. players followed in their big brother Bulldogs steps with a successful showing aided by Coach Jim Nipe and Bill Buracker.

And last but not least recognition needs to be given to Karen Selman for donning the Bulldog costume for every game.

Robbie Tate gets aggressive.

CROSS COUNTRY

Coach Chrisman led the cross country team to another successful finish. Meg Poffenburger was the first female to run on the team. She had no previous experience running for a man with Coach Chrisman's ability.

Luray's new basketball season brought all new coaches such as Mrs. (Coach) Strickler. This is Mrs. Strickler's first year at Luray. Though the team wasn't all too successful, at least it was consistent.

The Bulldogs try to avoid getting singed by the dragons. . . Which way to back out of this mess is the only thing on Tammy Hannah's mind.

J.V. GIRLS BASKETBALL SHOOT.

2 points for the Luray squad. (center) Sharon Brown goes in for a lay-up (left)

Coach Jaime Holsinger provided these young, athletic, girl basketball players with a new outlook. It was a big change from having a female coach last year. His experience with the boys J.V. squad and his help with boys Varsity were an additional help to the girls team. This years young squad contained some hot prospects for future Varsity material.

Linda Miller prepares to launch a volley.

Serving comes easy for Kathy Painter.

A NEW COACH, A NEW PLAY

Mrs. "coach" Strickler gives the girls a new incentive to strive for betterment. Each game brought forth a new chance to experience sportsmanship. Well-played games were a commonplace occurrence with a team like this one.

(Back row) Tammy Cave, Janice Dudley, Donna Proffitt, Vickie Star, Kim Griffith, Kim Windle, (second row) Amy Kibler, Linda Miller, Linda Breeden, Cynthia Strickler (bottom row) Lisa Williams and Kathy Painter.

"Hark" yells Libby Schaffer "I've made it over the net".

Volleyball has its ups and downs.

The varsity Volleyball team had the unique experience of breaking in a new coach. Though this year the team wasn't much of a success, we all learned a lot more about how the game should be played and how to use a lot of good sportsmanship after an unsuccessful game. We also hope that Coach Horner has learned a lot about how to run a team of talented athletic girls.

Preparation to hit the ball is demonstrated by Debbie Kemp. (above) By closing her eyes Brenda Williams uses her seventh sense to hit the ball. (right)

The Luray Bulldog Basketball team has had one of its greatest seasons again. Though this was the 2nd year Coach Corley has taken on the Basketball team, he lead them through all but two district victories.

A basket by Chris Ponn that led to making the bulldogs #1. (right) The Bulldogs beat the tails off the generals with the help of players like Chico Veney, the bulldogs most valuable player. (left) The team members are intrigued by Coach Dave Corley's game plan. (above)

Derek Dowery lays one up.

"Tall man" Rhodes leaves opposition grounded.

THE BASKET WAS GOOD!!

At the tournament between Rappahannock and Luray a tie between the teams brought on a three minute overtime. A last second basket for Luray was made a split second before the buzzer went off. Although the basket WAS good the referee ruled otherwise. This stirred up more controversy than has been seen in this area in a long time. Even though we lost a close one we all know down deep that we are still number 1.

"I betcha can't touch my ball", says Chico Veney.

"Doing the twist" by Chris Ponn.

J. V. BOYS BASKETBALL

Sophomore Steve Foltz gives senior Tom Shenk a pep talk.

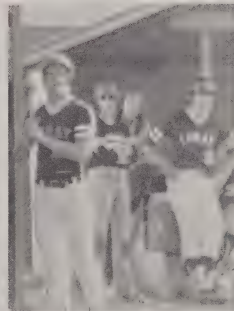

Steve Foltz stops to watch his magnificent fly ball.

Chris Ponn makes a successful pitch.

Biting his lip helps Johnny Rickard concentrate.

The team readys to hit the ball.

The baseball team faired pretty well this season. It went for a district game record of 6-6, and a 9-8 overall. The team placed third in the district, it's the best record in five years. Under a new coach can be quite trying at times, but coach Buracker pulled them through! Good luck next year team!

WEIGHT LIFTING: (back row) Doug Jennings, Mike Leake, Pat Goode, James Beatty, Page Wood (front) Pete Seeley, George Broy, John Adams, Todd Furman

The 1979-1980 golf team, coached by Jim Nipe had a very successful season. Through hard and long practices, the team compiled a record of 7-6. The team members included Eddie Dodson, Alvin Good, Lon Ancheta, Robert Jenkins, Brian Keyser, Bill Moyer, Chuckie Butler, Mike Jenkins, and Bart Smith.

The real backbone of the team was Eddie Dodson who placed second in district matches, first in the regional tournament, and fifth in the state tournament. Eddie was the teams most valuable player.

Another contributor to the team was senior Alvin Good. He was the teams number two man and the only senior on the team. He played his least matches during the latter part of the season. Good was chosen the most improved received the gold L.

Player Robert Jenkins got a relatively slow start but qualified for regionals and district tournament.

Lon Ancheta, Luray's #3 man played steadily through the season. His best match was in the district tournament at Shenvalee.

Brian Keyser, man #5 and Bill Moyer, man #6 put in good efforts and were quite successful.

The golf team owes it all to coach Jim Nipe who took the time to work individually with each team member. He was the one who got the team to place fourth in the regular season. They missed placing 3rd in the district tournament by seven strokes. The team sees a brighter future even though they have to wave good-bye to Alvin Good. (submitted by Alvin Good - edited and revised by K.B.)

This year Miss Kay Weaver took hold of the auxiliary teams and made them all champions at their jobs. They received a number of awards and recognition for a job well done. The entire band was led by drum majorette Sidney Griffith who took pride in her superior position, only second to leader and director Kay Weaver.

Near the end of the year the band went through daily marching practice to keep them prepared to march in the Luray High School band next year. Even better, to prepare those seniors who will be furthering their education and band membership in college.

TO SUCCESS

LURAY HIGH CHEERLEADERS

"They all agree that it is fun to meet other cheerleaders . . ."

A sit-down cheer comes from Tammy and Jill.

Cheerleading is hard work for Robin and Terry.

The LHS cheerleaders are the ball team's most dedicated athletic supporters. These glamorous, young (and studious) women follow the other teams throughout their victories and defeats. We, THE HIGHLANDERS, want to express our gratitude to this team of individualists by saying: "lets hear a cheer for the cheerleaders!!"

THE NOTORIOUS HIGHLAND STAFF

A serenade for yearbook is performed by advisor Pete Becker.

Talented photographer Mike Eackles dreams of film rolls this size.

Highland staff members: Mike Eackles, Kitty Broome, Peter Becker, and Carol Wiatrowski (not shown Barbara Call).

Carol looks over the prints.

Kitty and Mr. Becker look over negatives.

Barbara and Carol organize the files.

Copy preparation is done by Barbara Call.

Editor Kitty Broome dreams of working in a plush office such as this one.

The crew looks over past yearbooks to find names of those unknowns.

Famed photographer Yo Nagaya creates an image.

To view this book in the right perspective, you must realize its purpose. The purpose is to record as much history of the year in the time provided for it. I, the editor of the yearbook, or should I say I, the chief historian have given it my best shot. This is my first year on the staff so you can imagine how much learning I had to do in these past nine months. I just thank my creator for advisors like Mr. Peter Becker who saw me through the entire year. Now let me tell you about my staff.

Our Business manager Barbara Call has been responsible for all of our ad selling and the majority of our typing. Well, I must also admit that there are two Barbara Calls, one of which is her mother who has done a great deal of typing also. She was a benefit for our first deadline.

Then there are our three main photographers Mike Eackles, Yo Nagaya and Gary Reed. Mike Eackles who has been taking pictures for quite some time now was finally given his much dreamed of camera for Christmas. He is responsible for the majority of our senior shots and a few of our sports pictures. He has been a true benefit to the staff and I wish him much luck at Shepard College next year. Our other senior photographer is the multi-talented Yo Nagaya who is also responsible for all of the art work in the book. Yo also moonlights as the photographer and major designer of the school newspaper. And last but not least is the Page News and Courier photographer Gary Reed. Gary, who has moved on to a greater adventure beyond Luray has been responsible for almost all of our sports pictures. He has given me the strength to complete this book because he did not leave me starving for pictures. As a matter of fact none of the yearbook's photographers have let me down. I hope all of them continue to pursue their work in the creative field of photography.

I hope this lesson was beneficial to you, and I hope you enjoy your book. I leave my position as Editor of the yearbook to Barbara Call, and I leave Barbara Call to Page News and Couriers new photographer Bob Leverone.

FOCUS: THE NEWS CREW

Advertising is Brian Hassack's favorite job.

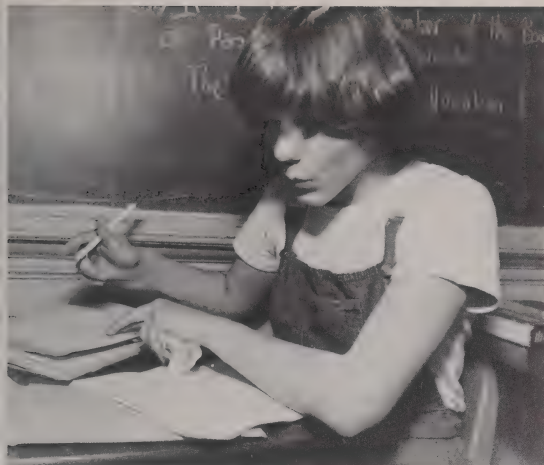

Typist Shawn Painter does tedious work.

The Editor-in-Chief Nick Wakeman relaxes with co-worker Kathy Sult.

Being on the staff means Kathy must do research.

Debbie Kemp whistles while she works.

Jennie prepares for a deadline.

Mr. Lay-out Yo Nagaya does his thing.

Warden Cathy Lively assembled, in room 16C, twelve inmates to form a group. The purpose of this group is to produce the prison newsmagazine, better known by its famous name, Focus.

We really aren't inmates at a prison even though we may act as such. We actually are students at Luray High School. Each of us is filled with ideas and actions specific to our own personalities. This causes problems; however, all conflicts are disputed until a compromise is reached, many if which have become greater ideas than any one person had thought of.

Sure, we have our own personality conflicts between each other. Which lead to the problem of whose temper can out last whose. These are usually settled by Mrs. Lively, our advisor. She may be small and dainty but take it from me she has a temper of her own to watch out for. She, too, has blown her top. Through all of our disputes and mishaps, we have really become closer to each other.

We have also learned to make do with what we have. Since we don't receive funds from the school, we are all out on our own. We have only one typewriter which if not talked to will come down with the typewriter blues and refuse to help us. We also do without or have very few of our other necessities; however, we try our best until we can come upon what else is needed.

Day by day goes by and we are always looking for ideas and topics to write about. We try to pick a topic that will interest the majority. We have days where we just sit around and think and somedays where we "goof off". No matter which of these days are taking place, we are most likely to have the paper in the back of our minds.

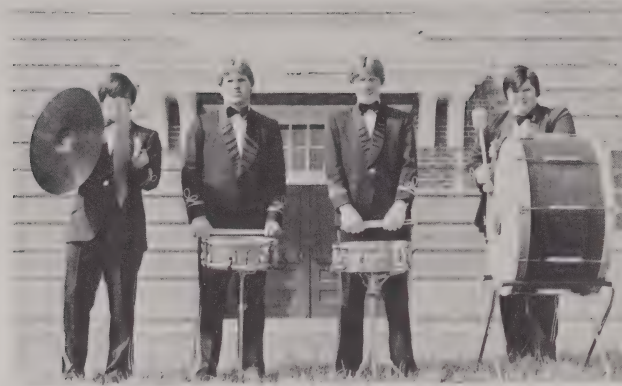

One of our biggest problems is deadline dates. We find ourselves lingering around things that must be done and somehow it all piles up about two days before the printer's deadline (day the paper MUST go to the printer). It has been these which have been called our "best works".

Since, we are all new staff members, with the exception of Yo Nagaya and Archie Painter, we are learning something new with each issue of "Focus". When the next school year rolls around we will call ourselves "experienced" and try with more effort to better ourselves and our paper.

I would like to say thank-you to the teachers whom let us all out of class to work on our "rush jobs" and "final touch-ups", it helped us more than you could imagine. And finally I would like to recognize our sponsor, Mrs. Cathy Lively, who pulls us through even when we are all at "war" with each other.

BAND

After adjusting to first-year director Kaye Weaver, the LHS Symphonic Band surprised everyone with a superior "1" rating in prepared music and a "2" overall at District Festival. Largely responsible for the band's success were the senior band members who formed the heart of the group.

Miss Liz Williard, Luray High School's French teacher was the director of the Senior Play: WHY ARE YOU DOING THIS? I enjoy it. I don't get to work with many seniors, so helps me get to know them. It also gives me a different perspective on them, other than being just students.

HOW DOES THIS YEAR COMPARE WITH OTHERS? It is above average. The stage was set up a lot earlier than usual. But, as for attendance . . .

WHAT DO YOU THINK THE OUTCOME WILL BE? Parents will enjoy it because it's taking place in the 1950's. They'll appreciate the effort we put into making it like the 50's. (P.S. Castmembers does this sound familiar? "I know everybodys lines but my own.")

GRADUATION 1980

Greg Lockridge, Richard Larwence, and Wade Lam express their approval of graduation.

Tammy checks to see which way to put her cap on.

Brenda talks about her plans for the future in Luray.

Lisa Beahm checks ahead to see if her diploma is ready to be given to her.

Eliot receives recognition for being the class Salutatorian.

Pete Seeley and Stephanie Armel sing us our last song.

GRADUATION PARTY

Pug cheers on the class of 1980.

Three cheers for Mrs. Broyles!

Tracy searches for a quarter so they can play QT.

The end is near.

Mike Alger looks into the future and reminisces into the past.

The 1980 Junior-Senior Prom arrived with a bang. All couples danced and sang to the music of First Class and took part in "munching out" on the food provided by the Junior Class.

At 9:00 the Grand March began moving to the theme song "Summer Breeze".

Lisa Dodson escorted by Tony Jenkins and Terry Fox escorted by Pat Goode were crowned princesses of the 1980 prom. Kitty Broome, escorted by Jake Woodward, was crowned the 1980 prom Queen.

Princess Lisa Dodson receives her flowers.

Princess Terry Fox charms her escort Pat Goode.

Prom Queen Kitty Broome is crowned by escort Jake Woodward.

Class president Linda Thomas leads Grand March.

The dancing mystifies senior Eric Clark.

A slow dance relaxes Natalie Thornton and Troy Veney.

A royal couple helps to begin the dance.

A young couple hold each other close.

The Grand March allows everyone to show off their clothes.

PROM WORKSHOP AGONIES

This years Junior Class experienced the thrills of victory and the agonies of defeat plus all the preliminary let-downs and upbringings. To begin with we all had to face the reality of giving a prom. The major problem was a lack of funds. Our first attempt at making money was very successful, that is for the Tupperware people. I suppose most of us expected more than the commission we received. After all most of Luray did learn how to "lock in freshness" from the class of 1981. "The Third Annual Gong Show" proved to be a very big money-raiser; although every Junior that worked on it was found with a "migraine" headache many days before the big event. After that we felt we had enough collateral to give a pretty good prom.

While we were raising money we also were getting things set up for prom. In November 10 of us went to Roanoke to hear bands play. All of them felt that if they would have heard one more verse of "My Sharona" they would have pulled their hair out. Prom invitations were done in December. Everyone was buzzing about "Summer Breeze". After exams all the committees were announced and/or set up.

Workshops began after "The Gong Show". We tied fishnets; made fans, flowers, and letters; constructed a gazebo; had the usual arguments on how things should be done; and gossiped. Thursday night before the prom was spent blowing up 2100 multi-colored balloons; borrowing furniture, fake grass, greenhouse plants, a $70.00 ceramic dog, air compressors; and decorating until 2:00 am Friday morning. Some brave souls showed up again at 7:00 am. One that afternoon found about 25 of us still working away, twisting streamers; sampling food; laughing at dumb jokes; and being told to "SUFFER". It was all worth it just to hear positive comments on all our work, even if we were all to tired to enjoy it ourselves. (BY SIDNEY GRIFFITH)

SOPHOMORES DREAM OF TOMORROW

The first car.

The hope to pass spurs Chuckie Butler on.

The enshrined class ring.

"Now we get to choose the prom band."

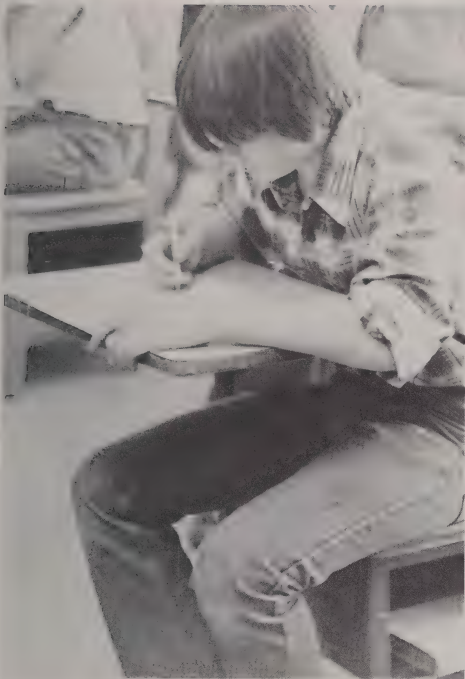

The dream car.

Thoughts of next year puts Barb Cruz in a daze.

The Sophomore class is in the center of the school. They are no longer the lower classmen and are not quite the upper classmen. The dream of finally getting that car that they've worked so hard for in Drivers Ed. is finally going to come true. Now all can cruz town together. Now they can go out on dates, drive to parties, and waste that precious liquid called GAS! But it will all be worth it. If you feed your car, opportunities never cease.

SOPHOMORES WORK TODAY

"Busy Work" keeps Sean Owens preoccupied.

It's time to wave good-bye to our beginning years.

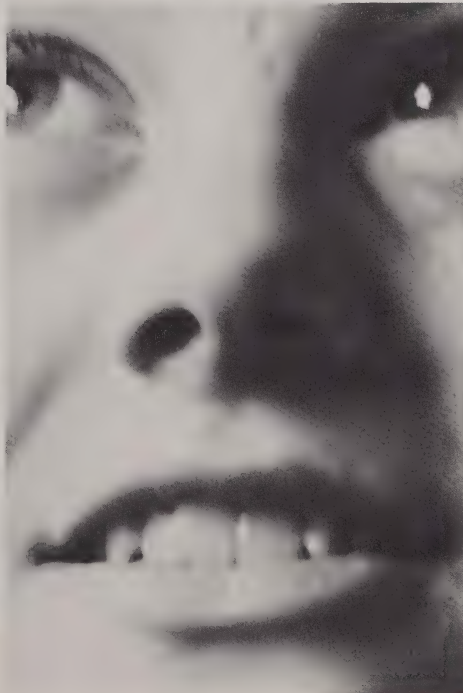

Next year this class won't have P.E.

For now the class of 1982 sits down and takes it as it comes. They may not be patient about the waiting, but they accept it. They realize that as they grow older they will be weighted down with more responsibilities and problems. So, they live it up while they are young!

The race for graduation is on for Tina Lucas.

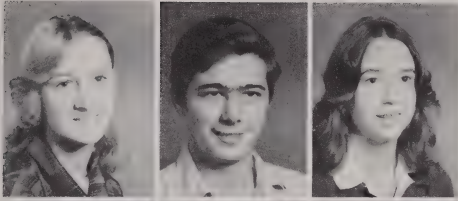

The days drag on for Terry Comer.

How close can Barbie Smith get to the end of the year?

OUR BEAUTIFUL HOMELAND

Luray, Virginia is famous for its homeland. The Shenandoah Valley, surrounded by those magnificent Blue Ridge and Massanutten mountains is sought after by tourists from all over the world. We have in our possession the Beautiful Caverns of Luray, the Skyline Drive that overlooks the valley, and the famous Shenandoah River. Hopefully this land will remain this way, guarded from large factories that will only pollute the area, and too much construction that will tear it down. May it remain beautiful forever.

THE CAMPAIGN PROMISES

This year the SCA decided to do a whole new type of speech giving. They decided to do skits on how beneficial they would be if elected to office. These skits both entertained the students and faculty. All of us thought to ourselves "What will they think of next". All of this creativity got us out of class and involved in the student government. This is very important because without a student government, none of the student body would have rights.

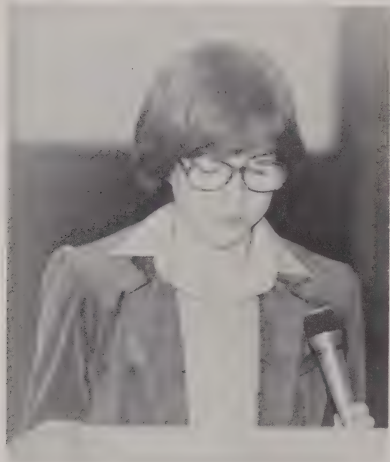

The New Officers: Brian Poffenburger - Tres., Tony Shaffer - Secretary, Eric Johnson - President, Laura Gordon - V. President, Advisor - Mrs. Broyles.

Seniors last assembly

This assembly brought the new officers into power. All of the past officers left without a tear, well, except for Elliot Robinson who was finally struck with the realization that this was his last year to be in office (in Luray High). Elliot, the SCA President brought many new beginnings to the LHS Life-style. He gave us dances that were preformed through the courtesy of the new radio station WLCC, he gave the sports events radio coverage, and he was an all around great guy. Also receiving recognition for superb work was senior Brenda Williams, the President of the Spanish club. Her club received recognition for the most services rendered to the school.

Senator John Warner thanks the students for their thought in this foreign.

Walking away in victory.

When the hostages were held after an unreasonable amount of days, the students of Luray High School decided to confront the issue. So, freshman Brian Poffenburger set about expressing the student body's opinion on the issue. After receiving over 200 signatures, a selected number of students accompanied Mrs. Broyles to Washington D.C. The trip was successful in that the Senator understood that we were concerned about the hostages. The world needs more concerned students like those at LHS.

Many students signed the petition written by Brian Poffenburger.

The trip started with everyone telling all their friends and family good-bye. The day that we had been awaiting had finally arrived. We got from Dulles to J.F.K. to New York in an amazing 41 minutes. From New York we flew to Paris, that flight across the Atlantic took nine hours. When we arrived in Paris, our flying experience was not over.

Nice, in my opinion, is like four cities in one. The entire south of France was beautiful, especially Monaco. Then there is Paris. Paris, in my opinion, was beautiful.

I have already started to save up money for the next time the French Club goes. My experiences were truly priceless. (This is a quote from Laura Gordon's article in Focus.)

All of the new equipment needs to be familiarized by the WLCC crew.

WLCC RADIO

Since October there has been a new sound in Luray and that new sound is WLCC. Our new radio station came along at a busy point in the school year and wasted no time springing into action to serve the community. WLCC started right off by broadcasting football games. Their service didn't stop there; they picked right up with basketball as that season got under way (thanks to Randy Swindle).

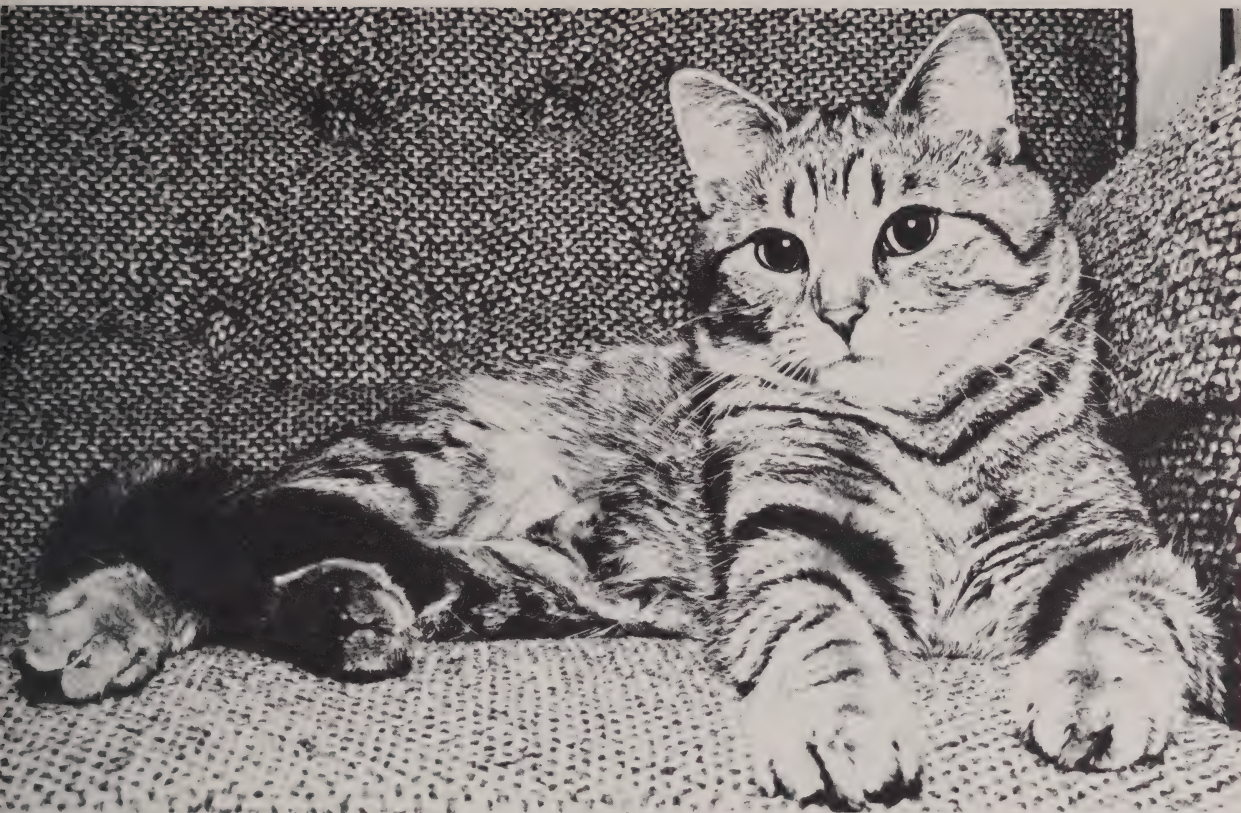

Throughout the entire year WLCC made every effort to help and serve Luray High School. From the very beginning, airtime was donated for class or club announcements and soon after WLCC opened the LHS on the airtime weekly. In addition a dedication night was started aimed to benefit the counties young people.

Not only did WLCC give us airtime, but they also became directly involved in activities. Announcers volunteered their time to help us out with two very successful dances and during the spring, were given the chance to win T-shirt radios and coffee mugs. WLCC sponsored a scholar-athlete award presented to senior who best combined scholastics with athletics.

Luray High is grateful for all the help given to us by WLCC. (submitted by Brian Poffenburger)

Now the radio is on the air.

This is KITTY an example of a pattern on a pattern.
Yo Nagaya gets a kick out of photography.

Yo Nagaya explained to me the reason why he takes pictures. He says its fun. He began taking pictures when he was in the third grade with a range-finder, then a canon, then three more then his MINOLTA. He says it isn't difficult you just need to get the hang of it. The biggest problem is composing the picture in the view finder. The expression created in the picture depends mostly on the eyes and creativity. You also need to be agresive with your camera. You shouldn't worry about what other people think when your on the job, just ignore all outside distractions.

Yo now works at the Page News and Courier and is trying to learn as much about photography as he can before college from the one and only Photographer Bob Leverone.

SPORTS BANQUET '80

Does anybody know the un-stretched truth about the late Albert L. (Hap) Heiser? Was he just the normal, down to earth sports writer for the Page News & Courier, or was there a more romantic story behind his mysterious. The rumors are detailed and many, and, in his name there is awarded a trophy that the outstanding senior athlete.

This year, at the 13th Annual Hap Heiser Award Banquet, Senior Chris Ponn received such an award. Chris has participated in varsity sports since his ninth grade year. He was awarded the Gold Helmet in football, named first team all Skyline District in Baseball, second team all district in football his Senior year, and second team all district basketball in his junior & senior year.

The Senior noted for both his scholar and athletic capability was Derek Dowrey. He received the WLCC Scholar award during the banquet. Derek was named the most valuable player in track, went to the state group A track meet in the 120-yard high hurdles & finished second with a time of 15 flat, which tied the school record that he set when he won the event at the district meet.

Other award receivers were all Senior athletes in recognition of their participation in sports. Special guest Gene Corrigan, UVA's Athletic Director spoke on the importance of sports.

MUSICIANS & MATHEMATICIANS RECEIVE AWARDS

The winners of the two Arion Awards were Peter Seely and Mike Kayan. Peter was a member of the Chorus for five years and participated in the Senior Choral Regionals held in Staunton. Mike was a member of the Symphonic Band and All-County Band. He played the Clarinet under many directors and deserves all possible recognition.

Arion winners Mike Kayan and Peter Seeley proudly display their award.

Outstanding math students who have participated in the Virginia Mathematics League in this past year received recognition for high scores. Every month a test of six questions were distributed out among all math students for trial. These four students: Elliot Robinson, Tammy Hannah, Debbie Bragg & Paul Broome were the high scorers.

side the bus.

The senior trip took place at Kings Dominion. Well, most of it. There was that unforgettable educational aspect of the trip that should be mentioned. On the way we stopped at a battlefield and saw a film. Now for Kings Dominion: Great trip! We all rode the rides, we all ate the junk food, and we all got wet when it rained late in the afternoon. A lot of the seniors stocked up on candy and other munchies to occupy the time on the long trip home. It was the last time these seniors would travel in a group. The only together event left for them is GRADUATION.

The boys head down the river.

ENOUGH RIDES TO MAKE YOU SICK

Ready for take off.

"Horsey" Dana Bratcher rides West.

Eric Clark takes a bite of his coke.

"Swingers" Stephanie Armel & Kitty Broome await their turns.

"Looks like I made it" says Glen Mabe.

"Spider" Susan Woodward takes a spin.

"Doozie" Robbie Copeland & Alan Kibler catch a ride home.

TOO BAD IT'S OUR LAST

Returning from the haunted river shocks Linda & scares Bonita.

"Look Ma, no hands" says Becky Foster & Tammy Rhines.

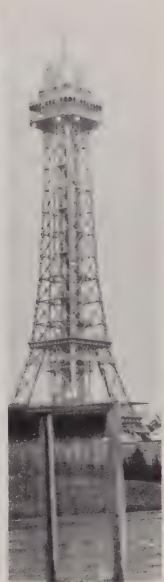

The boys tell us of their trip to Kings Dominion.

Pickle eater Yo Nagaya chomps down on a good one.

IT'S SATURDAY NIGHT LIVE

Teachers applaud to night time entertainment presented by Rick Johnson and Pete Becker.

The famed Drugfair parking lot.

Lisa Beahm looks for people she knows.

Wayne Lawson sells gas to all passerbys on their way down Mainstreet.

Terry Brill flashes by on his way to a party.

Yo lets himself go.

Joe Burner and Larry Osborne await visitors.

There is nothing quite like a Saturday Night in Luray. This is when the entire town is put in the celebrating spirit. The highlights consist of cruising town, parking in Drugfair parking lot, and merely getting together with a bunch of friends and raising the roof. A Saturday night in a small town puts to end the myth that there isn't anything to be done for entertainment. I can't think of anything more enjoyable than getting into a car for an evening cruz into town.

Teresa,

So, do ya miss me in the flute section? Whenever I go I'm going to miss you. I'll bet you don't know who you look like. You look just like Melissa Stone. Remember

Love,
You have always been a treasured friend to me.
I hope throughout all the years you will get what you want out of life.
